TEACHING RELIGION AND VIOLENCE (HARDBACK)

Oxford University Press Inc, United States, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 239 x 157 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Many people now see religious violence as one of the defining characteristics of the modern world. Instructors are often asked about it in their courses that deal with religion. Classroom discussion of violence committed in the name of religion can either open the door to a more subtle appreciation of complex and divisive social realities or allow students to...
