Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Garrison Centenary: December Tenth, 1805-1905 The following biographical sketch of William Lloyd Garrison, and the accompanying extracts from his writings, have been prepared for the use of those who are proposing to celebrate the centenary of the great emancipator s birth, which comes on Sunday, December 10th. It is hoped that churches, colleges and schools throughout the land, and that literary and other organizations, will observe the day by appropriate services which shall recall to our people the great cause for which he and his brave associates labored, and of which they lived to see the triumph. The exercises might fitly include selections from the subjoined account of his life, of the noble Declaration of Sentiments which he wrote on founding the American Anti-Slavery Society in 1833, and of some of the inspiring passages from his speeches and writings which so well reveal the pure and lofty character of the man. We would offer the following as a suggestive program. Program 1. Music 2. Scripture Reading 3. Prayer 4. Music 5. Presiding Officer s Remarks 6. Biographical Oration (Ten minutes) 7. Music 8. Garrison as a Journalist (Ten minutes) 9. Words of Garrison (20 minutes) Selections from Address and words of Garrison given in the Garrison Centenary Leaflet. These should be recited by at least six young people. This program is simply suggestive. The material for it may be found in the Garrison Centenary Leaflet. It is not intended that this whole leaflet should be given at any one exercise but that Churches, Colleges, Schools, Literary and other associations should treat it as a source from which the persons selected may gather the proper material....
