Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1897 Excerpt: . . . REPORT. The Minnesota Historical Society, in presenting to the legislature its fourteenth biennial report, may be pardoned for a reasonable pride in its present prosperous condition, conscious that it has fulfilled the trust imposed upon it by the people of the state. The society was organized in 1849, by a few of the pioneers of the territory, and was incorporated by an act of the First Territorial legislature, approved October 20, 1849, thus being the first literary institution organized in the territory. Its library, consisting then of only a few volumes, was the first established in Minnesota. The amended charter of 1856 enacted: The objects of said Society, with the enlarged powers and duties herein provided, shall be, in addition to the collection and preservation of publications, manuscripts, antiquities, curiosities, and all other things pertaining to the social, political, and natural history of Minnesota,...
