Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annals of the Minnesota Historical Society, 1852: Containing the Annual Address, and Other Papers Member of the Minnesota Historical Society - Ladies and Gentlemen: I appear before you more on account, as I fear, the partiality of my friends, than on account of any great profit which may accrue to you from any thing I may have to say. I could wish that some one else, among the many competent gentlemen I now see before me, had been selected for the duty with which I have been entrusted; but having been requested to contribute something to the entertainment of the society, I have not felt at liberty to decline. The society, whose objects we are now met together to promote, has for its chief end, the record and elucidation of facts and incidents connected with the history, past and passing, of the territory whose name it bears; but it has also, if I err not, though in a subordinate degree, the preservation and illustration of the like kind of information in regard to any other portion of our common country, if by such information the quantum of knowledge can be increased, and the mind and heart be correspondingly enlarged and improved. It is in accordance with these views, therefore, and because the Executive Committee have not restricted me in my subject, that I have ventured to go out of the track of my predecessors, who have addressed the society, and shall take as the subject of my address, this evening, the main incidents connected with an expedition into the Navajo country, made in 1849, by a command under the direction of Col. Jno. M. Washington,...
