By Edgar Allan Poe

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . MS. Found in a Bottle is a short story by Edgar Allan Poe about a shipwrecked traveller who finds himself aboard a death ship. It was first published in the weekly Baltimore Saturday Visiter on October 19, 1833 after Poe submitted this story (along with five others) for a writing contest, and it was announced as the winner on October 12, earning him $50. It was collected into Tales of the Grotesque and Arabesque, vol. I, 1840. Edgar Allan Poe (born Edgar Poe; January 19, 1809 - October 7, 1849) was an American author, poet, editor, and literary critic, considered part of the American Romantic Movement. Best known for his tales of mystery and the macabre, Poe was one of the earliest American practitioners of the short story, and is generally considered the inventor of the detective fiction genre. He is further credited with contributing to the emerging genre of science fiction. He was the first well-known American writer to try to earn a living through writing alone, resulting in a financially difficult life and career. Born...
