Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Argument for a Finitist Theology It was my first intention to take Vaihinger s Philosophie des ALS OB as the subject of my doctoral dissertation; and in the spring of 1916 in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the Master s degree I did submit an essay on The Philosophy of the As If in Its Application to Theology. I became convinced, however, as the investigation proceeded, that an examination of the doctrine of a finite God ought to precede any attempt to appraise the value of the method of conscious illusion. I gladly avail myself of the opportunity afforded by a preface to acknowledge my indebtedness to Professor A. O. Lovejoy for his encouragement and for his patient as well as searching and helpful criticism. As I owe much more to his lectures and to his oral and written suggestions than to his published writings, this general statement may take the place of particular acknowledgments and references in detail, which in the nature of the case could not often be given.
