Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Historical Digest of the Provincial Press, Vol. 1: Being a Collation of All Items of Personal and Historic Reference Printed in the Newspapers of the Provincial Period From the Appearance of the Present State of the New-English Affairs, 1689, Publick Occurrences, 1690, and the First Issue of the Bost It is proposed to compile and publish a digest of all items of personal reference and of historic events and documents printed in the newspapers of the Provincial Period. At the suggestion and with the endorsement of members of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, of the Massachusetts Historical Society, and of other historical organizations, this work has been undertaken by Lyman Horace Weeks and Edwin M. Bacon, editors, and the Society Americana, publishers. For many years past a digest of this character has been contemplated and has been keenly desired by historians and others. The large expense, the great amount of labor, and the considerable financial risk necessarily involved in the adequate and satisfactory accomplishing of such a work have heretofore been unsurmountable obstacles in the way of attempting it. The project is now entered upon under favorable conditions and with a sound financial backing that will enable it to be carried out to a successful termination. As will be seen by the accompanying notes of approval on pages 21, 22 and 23 of this prospectus, the enterprise has the approbation of librarians, scholars and others most interested in the preservation of all that pertains to the domestic affairs and public doings of the American founders. The importance of such a compilation is indisputable, and in the experience of investigators is constantly emphasized by...
