By Love Alone Daily Readings with St Therese of Lisieux

By Hollings, Michael (Ed)

Darton, Longman & Todd, London, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Obbard, Elizabeth Ruth (illustrator). Third Edition. Therese of Lisieux is among today's most popular and best-loved saints. Yet she entered a Carmelite convent when she was fifteen and died when she was only twenty-four. How did she come to be so widely known and loved? The answer lies in her writings. She left an autobiography, "The Story of a Soul", and a collection of leters, poems and counsels. These give a picture of a unique spirituality, the "little way" of love. Therese set out to teach "trust and absolute self-surrender", and showed how holiness lies within the reach of us all. New readers will be surprised by her refreshing absence of piousness and a spiritual honesty that speaks to us today. Michael Hollings has selected passages which show the essence of Therese and which can be used day by day to help the reader develop his or her relationship with the God of love. 79 pages.
