OCLC Number: 52159736 Excerpt: . . . 4 OPENING STATEMENT OF SENATOR HILLARY RODHAM CLINTON LINTON Senator C. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman, and I join with my colleague, Senator Sessions, in thanking you for high-lighting the importance of this issue, and I especially thank our witnesses for coming on this first day of summer. Sandra Feldman is always there when discussions about edu-cation and children take place, and I thank her for her leadership. And, Dr. Cooper, I thank you for focusing attention on an area that has not gotten enough, and I really appreciate your bringing this to a point where we can look at what many of us have believed for a long time and understand there is evidence to support that belief. And, also, Ms. Ramoglou, thank you for what you do and the pro-gram that you will be describing. Summer school and an extended school year has long been a de-sired objective for those of us who have worked on school reform for a long time, particularly because of the impact it has on low-income children, on poorly achieving children, on children who face challenges and difficulties because of their environments. It is such an important issue that even in a time of tremendous budget difficulties in New York City, our new mayor was per-suaded to restore funding for summer school because the evidence is really overwhelming that we have made some important, albeit incremental, steps to raise achievement among our students in the New York City school system, and we know it will be wiped out if there is not some opportunity for continuing educational experi-ences. People like us fill our childrens summers with all kinds of activi-ties. We...
