GRIN Verlag Nov 2012, 2012. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 210x148x2 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, grade: 1,0, University of Duisburg-Essen, language: English, abstract: [.] Although there is quite a number of reasonable arguments for not welcoming Turkeyto the European family , such as financial as well as political and ethical, the majority ofTurkish people consider prejudices against Turks as the actual reason for their rejection: theyare (culturally) too different and more than the half of the European citizens are against aTurkish membership in the EU. Instead, a privileged partnership is being proposed bysome conservative European governments (or opposing parties such as the German ChristianDemocratic party), instead of a full membership. I think full needs to be emphasised herebecause it means a real and well-meant friendship, a step closer to becoming a family memberone day rather than a mere political (or strategical) ally. Well, family implies that there areless differences, that one is almost alike. There are many European tenets as well astraditional views which hinder an honest dialogue since Europe has yet to rid itself of...
